

Dear Prospective Camper:

Thank you for inquiring about camp at Puckerbrush Farm! We are looking forward to a fun, adventure-filled summer learning about horses.

Puckerbrush Farm offers the finest in equine education and facilities. There is a large 75' x 235' indoor so that we can ride in any weather, a scenic cross country course with fences for all abilities, two large outdoor riding rings, and miles of trails. Best of all, we have a student to instructor ratio of 3:1 which means that you will receive individual attention throughout your week with us. You will end your stay able to compete in shows or to ride on your own in a safe and competent manner.

We would like to invite you to come for a tour of Puckerbrush Farm prior to your camping experience. Feel free to stop by and browse on your own or call ahead to be sure that someone will be available to show you all the property has to offer. Our number is (207) 234-2147 and website is www.puckerbrushfarm.com – please check it out!

Once again, thank you for considering Puckerbrush Farm. The only thing better for us who are already here is the chance to share it with everyone else!! Come join our family!

Sincerely,

Bryn Walsh & Becky Reed- Camp Administrators
